

As the heat of summer approaches, not many are thinking of next spring. Heck, we have the Fourth of July to celebrate, Labor Day, Veterans' Day, Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Eve, and the myriad of various personal and official holidays and other events (including the famous Spooks N' Scoots every October) to think about way before we can even toy with the idea of spring 2011.

However, those of us that head to Daytona Bike Week know very well that now is the time to plan. Those that don't want to spend upwards of $319 PER NIGHT (yeah, I just looked at a hotel today and couldn't believe it myself) to have a place to sleep while attending Daytona's annual Bike Week know that getting things set up NOW will save them thousands of dollars when March 2011 comes.

Enter ABATE of Florida, Inc's Daytona Bike Week 2011 Campground. We'll have hot showers, vendors, food, beverages (yes, you can read into that!), ice, 24/7 security for your scooter, firewood, and an ATM on site... if you want to bring a tent, we have plenty of room. If you want to bring an RV, come on down. If you want to bring your toy hauler and have full RV hookups (water/electric/sewer), we have the place for you. We're 20 minutes outside of Daytona, 30 minutes outside of Orlando at the Volusia County Fairgrounds. There's even a motorcycle swap meet on the fairgrounds too. As a bonus, we'll even have our annual motorcycle drawing on the last Saturday of Bike Week where you could win a brand new 2010 Harley Davidson FXD Dyna Super Glide motorcycle. This bike is ready to ride, all sales tax, federal withholding tax, tag & title fees are PAID; all you have to do is put a little gas in the tank! Not bad for $5 donation per ticket!

What's the cost for our Campground you ask? A measly $15 per person per night or $90 for all ten days for tent camping (remember, some are charging $319 per night for a hotel!). If you want to bring that RV without hook-ups, add a one-time $20 fee. If you want the full luxury of your rolling Tashma Hall with full RV hook ups, it'll be $50 per night, which includes you and a friend. As yet another bonus, if you're an ABATE of Florida, Inc. member, you could possibly stay for free your second (or more) nights!

All are welcome to stay with us for the 2011 Daytona Bike Week! Come on by; save a boat-load of money, and help support our continued fight for biker's rights in Florida!
